

PAMELA CHATRY

YOUR PREMIER BUSINESS ADVISOR AND MENTOR

Pamela has been a trusted and highly skilled Premier Business Advisor and Mentor for over 25 years. She offers extensive experience in strategic planning, the creation of 'living' business plans, practical operational support and systems, and real-life staffing strategies. Pamela's knowledge and expertise have helped numerous business owners develop and implement outcome-based solutions to overcome the challenges facing growth businesses.

Pamela is a seasoned Business Coach for The Gemini Effect, an international business development program. This program provides planning and implementation support to established businesses with revenues exceeding $1M during challenging growth phases. She is also the Vancouver Chair of The Woman's Advantage® Forum, a year-long educational and support program that enables women with small to mid-size businesses to grow them into million-dollar businesses and beyond.

Pamela is a staunch advocate for small to mid-sized businesses and a proud supporter of all things entrepreneurial. She's also an accomplished keynote speaker, facilitator, and trainer, and holds a diploma from the University of Alberta.

Pamela offers workshops and full-semester courses on self-employment and business skills development to owners and employees of growing businesses. Topics include: strategic business/HR/operational planning, sales and marketing skills, and customer service plans. She has delivered training to the retail sector, the tourism and hospitality industry, and many other companies, from large to small.
